

Legacy

Introducing South Florida's 40 Under 40 Black Leaders of Today and Tomorrow for 2013

Jerrell Moore, Burger King's Chief Diversity Officer, offers critical career advice

Dionne Anderson of Design Miami turns dreams into reality

Attorney Reginald Mathis shares his journey to success

And more..

THE LAW OFFICES OF ATB
Adelson, Testan, Brundo,
Novell & Jimenez
A Professional Corporation

Certified Litigation Management Professional (CLMP)

It is with great pride that the Partners, Associates & Staff at Adelson, Testan, Brundo, Novell & Jimenez congratulate Salisu (Sal) A. Richardson, Esq. on being selected as one of Legacy Magazine's 40 Under 40 Leaders of Today and Tomorrow.

Sal Richardson is a proud native of Opa-Locka, FL, where he set his sights on becoming an attorney at an early age. To that end, he attended the University of Florida where he earned degrees in Finance (BS with Honors), Real Estate (MA) and a JD, by age 24.

As Managing Partner for Litigation at the Florida office of ATB Law (www.atblaw.net), Sal specializes in Workers' Compensation defense for large and small Employers and their Insurance Carriers.

Growing up, Sal was in the youth organization, Voices United, and he subsequently became Chairman of its Board in 2010. His current commitments include; the 100 Black Men of Greater Ft. Lauderdale, YPN of Broward County, the UF ABA, Chairman of Broward County's 4-H Advisory Council, Planning Committee for the National Bar Association's conference July 27 – August 2 in Miami and, most importantly, he is the proud father of two princes and a princess.

California Connecticut Florida Illinois Iowa Missouri
Nebraska Nevada New Jersey Oklahoma Pennsylvania Texas

Adelson, Testan, Brundo, Novell & Jimenez, founded in 1996 by its Senior Managing Partner, Steven C. Testan, is an innovative and dynamic national law firm whose primary focus is the defense of Workers' Compensation claims and related matters. With offices covering the states of California, Connecticut, Florida, Illinois, Iowa, Missouri, Nebraska, Nevada, New Jersey, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania and Texas, the firm is readily able to handle the litigation needs of insurance carriers, third-party administrators and self-insured employers in all of the venues across these twelve states.

