

Adelson, Testan, Brundo, Novell & Jimenez (ATB) Celebrates Its 20th Anniversary

Adelson, Testan, Brundo, Novell & Jimenez marks 20 years of legal service in the defense of Workers' Compensation claims.

Westlake Village, CA February 23, 2016 – Adelson, Testan, Brundo, Novell & Jimenez (ATB), a nationally recognized law firm whose primary practice areas are the defense of Workers' Compensation and General Liability claims, employment discrimination cases and related civil matters, today announced is celebrating its 20th anniversary of operations this month. Two decades of experience have transformed ATB from a single office law firm into a successful national company with locations in 14 states with risk managers in many Fortune 1000 companies relying on their professional counsel.

Since 1996, the firm has maintained two guiding principles. The first is dedication to service. It is our philosophy that speed in the field of litigation and business management saves money, helps morale and improves accuracy, while lowering the costs to our clients.

The second guiding principle of Adelson, Testan, Brundo, Novell & Jimenez is to develop strong personal ties to our clients. It is our goal to meet with our clients and invite them to actively participate in the defense of their claims by being present at depositions and hearings.

"I am so honored and privileged to have had those twenty years to serve our clients, the community and to have come to know so many exceptional attorneys" said Steven C. Testan, founder and senior managing partner of ATB.

